To this BUCCIERI stated, "no wonder he acts nutty at times."

Reference is made to your name check request (attached) concerning the captioned individual received June 3, 1968.

Based upon the data submitted by your service, the following information is furnished concerning one Anthony Eldorado listed as [Redacted] of your applicant.

b6
b7C

Sources, who have furnished reliable information in the past, advised during June, 1968, that Anthony Eldorado, also known as Tony Pine and Tony Pineapples, 5463 West Madison Street, Chicago, with a previous residence of 6107 South Knox Avenue, Chicago, is a known former muscle man and "juice" loan collector in the organization of Fiore Buccieri, a top hoodlum in the Chicago area. Eldorado, because of age and illness, is now relatively inactive and acts principally as a handyman and errand boy for Fiore Buccieri.

The above is the result of a name check review of the Chicago Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) Office investigative files only and is not to be construed as either a clearance or non-clearance of this individual.

To check arrest records a request must be submitted to the FBI Identification Division and in this regard fingerprints are necessary for a positive check.

Addendum

Above is furnished Civil Service Commission, Chicago, in response to their name check requests concerning [Redacted] of the captioned individual.

November 20, 1969
Date _____

At 10:10 a.m. on November 13, 1969, Special Agent LENARD A. WOLF entered Connie's Restaurant, 3271 South Harlem and observed [] and [] sitting in a booth with JAMES TORELLO.

TORELLO invited SA WOLF to sit down in the booth with him at which time [] and [] left the booth. In the ensuing conversation with TORELLO, he made the following remarks:

He said that FIORE BUCCIERI had been going almost every day to the Santa Fe Saddle and Gun Club. He said that BUCCIERI had pulled a muscle and pinched a nerve in his back while lifting a heavy log at the Santa Fe Saddle and Gun Club.

TORELLO said they had not been able to play handball for several months, and that they were considering building a handball court at the Santa Fe Saddle and Gun Club.

SA WOLF told TORELLO he had not seen him around for several weeks and asked him if he had been out of town. TORELLO said he had been here at this restaurant every day for the past week. He said that he would be going out of town next February.

TORELLO said that now he could not even go hunting within the state, since he is an ex-convict and cannot possess a gun even for sporting purposes.

TORELLO replied that he has not made any money yet on the trucks he owns, but that he will make some if he does not have any major mechanical breakdowns.

TORELLO wondered why BUCCIERI had not come into the restaurant and inquired of a waitress if "Feef" had been in earlier. The waitress said no. SA WOLF mentioned that he might have company as an old black or dark blue Chevrolet was parked at BUCCIERI's house.

TORELLO said that was probably ANTHONY ELDORADO's car. He said ELDORADO is now selling shoes in his store on Madison Street. He said ELDORADO buys up job lots and sells good shoes, mostly working type shoes, for low prices. TORELLO said ELDORADO is now soft in the head and "never did have too much upstairs."

UNITED STATES GOVERNMENT

Memorandum

TO : SAC, CHICAGO (92-1374)

DATE: 11/25/69

FROM : SA LENARD A. WOLF

SUBJECT: ANTHONY ELGORADO, aka;
AR

This case was reopened to determine if there was a possible FRA or FHA violation concerning subject's loans with banking or savings and loan institutions.

It is to be noted that subject's home mortgage at the Addison Savings and Loan Association was checked by SA [redacted] on July 5, 1963. ELGORADO had a twenty year, $18,000 mortgage on his two flat at 5463 West Madison, Chicago. ELGORADO falsely claimed in application dated September 24, 1962, that he was employed as a butcher at the Corner Meat Market, 600 South Pulaski, and that he had been employed there since 1958. He also falsely stated that he had worked for the Quality Market, 704 South Kedzie, for ten years.

b7C

It is to be noted that the Addison Savings and Loan Association does not have a Federal charter, and even if it did, the statute of limitations would have run out on the false statements made by ELGORADO.

On November 18, 1969, [redacted] assistant Vice President, Merchants Manufacturers Bank, 1836 Broadway, Melrose Park, Illinois, furnished the following information to SA LENARD A. WOLF:

b6
b7C

[redacted] stated that ANTHONY ELGORADO, 5463 West Madison, had an automobile loan at this bank, but the account was closed in December, 1968. He stated this was the only loan ELGORADO had at this bank.

Since there are no apparent FHA or FRA violations committed by ELGORADO, and since his current activities do not warrant additional investigation, this case should be closed on this memorandum.

SUBJECT: ANTHONY ELDORADO, aka

This case was reopened in order to determine if ELDORADO may have committed an FRA or FHAM violation. All financial leads concerning ELDORADO have been covered without uncovering a violation of these statutes within the statute of limitations.

Because of ELDORADO's age, he no longer is used as a muscle man in the BUCCIERI organization. He currently is only used by FIORE BUCCIERI to do menial tasks such as driving BUCCIERI's son to school or cutting BUCCIERI's lawn.

Since ELDORADO's current activities do not warrant any further investigation, this case is being placed in a closed status.

WOLF observed a pickup truck bearing the initials "MJB" on the door, and Illinois 1970 truck license [REDACTED] parked alongside of FIORE BUCCIERI's residence at 3004 South Maple, Berwyn, Illinois. A blue Chevrolet sedan bearing Illinois 1970 license [REDACTED] was parked in the driveway to BUCCIERI's garage.

[REDACTED] was observed working on BUCCIERI's lawn. ANTHONY ELDORADO was observed to come out of the house, obtain a broom from the garage, and to proceed to sweep the sidewalk on the south side of BUCCIERI's residence.

FIORE BUCCIERI was observed cleaning fish on the south side of his residence. BUCCIERI said he was cleaning walleye pike. He said this morning when he got up, [REDACTED] was waiting outside the house for him. He said [REDACTED] had an eight pound walleye and a number of smaller ones for him. He said [REDACTED] had caught the walleye at Lake Geneva while night fishing.

BUCCIERI showed SA WOLF that he had a lump below his right knee and that his right leg was quite swollen from the knee injury he had received when his leg went through a board at the Santa Fe Saddle and Gun Club.

BUCCIERI said he would be moving to his summer residence at Lake Geneva around the end of next week.

TO : SAC, CHICAGO (92-1374)

DATE: 3/29/73

FROM : SA HAROLD K. JONNSEN

SUBJECT: ANTHONY ELDORADO, aka
AR

This case was reopened to determine if the subject is active in the BUCCIERI organization.

The subject has been observed doing menial tasks at the residence of FIORE BUCCIERI, such as mowing the lawn and emptying the garbage. He has been observed grocery shopping for BUCCIERI.

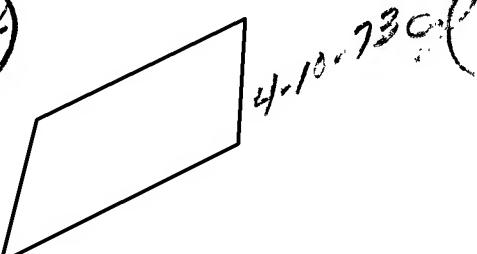

The subject was arrested by the Chicago PD in June 1972 and charged with changing the labels on packages of meat in a grocery store. The case was discharged.

Due to the subject's age and slow mobility it is felt his current activities do not warrant further investigation at this time.

It is recommended this case be closed.

ANTHONY ELDORADO

Criminal History

ANTHONY ELDORADO, an LCN member, is better known as TONY PINES or TONY ZITO, and has a criminal arrest record dating back to 1936 when he was arrested for armed robbery in Detroit, Michigan, and sentenced to serve three to twenty years in the State Penitentiary at Jackson, Michigan. He was paroled October 21, 1938. ELDORADO has several more arrests but no other felony convictions.

According to Chicago report of SA [redacted] dated May 27, 1964, ELDORADO was "made" into the Chicago mob in 1956 along with JOSEPH FERRICOLA. The two men were sponsored by FIORE BUCCIERI (deceased) and WILLIE "POTATOES" DADDANO.

b6
b7D

However, [redacted] disputes the fact that ELDORADO was made an actual member of the Chicago mob. Source said that ELDORADO was too dumb to be a member. Source described ELDORADO as an animal - very mean, very strong.

Most references to ELDORADO have identified him as a muscle-man and bodyguard for FIORE BUCCIERI. BUCCIERI died in 1973.

During his younger days, ELDORADO was said to have a violent temper and would attack with little provocation. On April 25, 1963, the Chicago Tribune reported the arrest of ELDORADO after he assaulted two Chicago Police Officers who were attempting to question him about a bottle of vodka that two teenage girls said had been purchased from ELDORADO inside a hot dog stand that he was operating at the time.

ELDORADO, at various times during the late 1950s, and the early 1960s, was reported to be involved in gambling and juice. However, this activity appears to be mainly on behalf of FIORE BUCCIERI and often involved collection or enforcement.

On June 10, 1964, ELDORADO was observed to be acting as a gate guard at the wedding reception of [redacted] and [redacted] new wife, [redacted]

On March 29, 1973, SA HAROLD JOHNSON, via memorandum, recommended that the investigation of ELDORADO be closed because surveillance had disclosed that ELDORADO was becoming very slow with old age and appeared to be doing nothing more than menial labor for BUCCIERI around BUCCIERI's home.

b6

In September, 1972, ELDORADO was reported as the owner of the building 5401 West Madison, Chicago, Illinois, by [redacted] Chicago, Illinois. She said that ELDORADO rented the Madison Street property and other property that he owned through rental agent Stroller Real Estate, 5409 West Madison, Chicago, Illinois.

On July 10, 1973, it was reported that ELDORADO had allegedly purchased an interest in Vets Livery, 5403 West Madison, Chicago, Illinois, telephone 379-1151, 1152, 1153, and 261-9667.

There is no current intelligence on ANTHONY ELDORADO which provides sufficient information to determine whether he is or is not involved in criminal activity.

[redacted] has identified ELDORADO as a member of the Chicago "family" of the LCN.
